

Imprimatur,

August 20th, 1685.

Norfolk & Marshal.

Imprimatur,

August 20th, 1685.

Norfolk & Marshal.

THE
O R D E R
OF THE
I N S T A L L A T I O N

OF
Henry Duke of Norfolk,
HENRY Earl of PETERBOROW,
AND
LAURENCE Earl of ROCHESTER.

K N I G H T S and C O M P A N I O N S
Of the Most Noble Order
OF THE
G A R T E R.

In the Royal Chappel of St. GEORGE

AT
W I N D S O R,

JULY 22. 1685.

L O N D O N:

Printed for Robert Clavel at the Peacock in St. Paul's
Church-yard. 1685.

ORDER

IN STATUTE

THE

OF THE

OF THE

OF THE

OF THE

OF THE

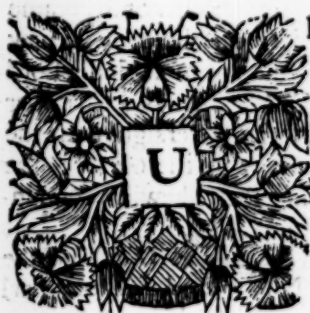

OF THE

OF THE

The Order of the Installation of Henry Duke of Norfolk, Henry Earl of Peterborow, and Laurence Earl of Rochester, Knights and Companions of the most Noble Order of the Garter, at Windsor on Wednesday 22 July, 1685.

CHAP. I.

Of the Election and Investiture of the Three New Knights at Whitehall.

PON the Decease of His late Majesty King Charles the Second of ever Glorious Memory, Sovereign of the most Noble Order of the Garter, on the 6th of February, 1685, without Lawful Issue, his Royal Highness James Duke of York, onely Brother to His said late Majesty, and Knight of the said Most Noble Order, coming thereupon by right of Succession to be King of this Realm and Sovereign of the said Most Noble Order; by which means His Stall as Duke of York became vacant. At a Chapter of the said most Noble Order held at Whitehall, in the Presence of the Sovereign, on the Sixth day of May, 1685. and the First Year of His Majesties Reign; the High and Mighty Prince Henry Duke of Norfolk Earl Marshal of England, was Elected a Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order, being first Knighted by His Majesty with the Sword of State, and then Invested with the two Principal Ensigns of the said Order, scil. the George and Garter; the usual Admonitions or Significations upon the said Investiture being pronounced by the Chancellor of the said Order.

First, upon His Majesties putting on the George Pendant at a Sky-coloured Ribband about his Neck, the Admonition ensuing was read to him.

Wear this Ribband about thy Neck, adorn'd with the Image of the Blessed Martyr and Souldier of Christ St. George; by whose imitation provoked, thou mayst so over-pass both prosperous and adverse Encounters, that having stoutly vanquished thy Enemies, both of Body and Soul, thou mayst not only receive the praise of this transient Combat, but be Crowned with the Palm of Eternal Victory.

Secondly, upon Buckling on the Garter about the said Dukes Leg by the Duke of Ormond and Earl of Oxford, Knights and Companions of the said Order, Order, this following Admonition was read unto him by the foresaid Chancellor.

To the Honour of God Omnipotent, and in memorial of the Blessed Martyr St. George. tye about thy Leg for thy Renown this Noble Garter: Wear it as the Symbol of the most Illustrious Order, never to be forgotten or laid aside; that thereby thou mayst be admonished to be Courageous, and having undertaken a just War, into which onely thou shalt be engaged, thou mayst stand firm, Valiantly fight, and Successfully conquer.

Shortly after which another Stall being vacant by the Death of the Illustrious Prince Charles the Second Prince Elector Palatine of the Rhyne, and Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, which hapned at Heidelberg 16 May, 1685. And at a Chapter of the said Order held at Whitehall the 18th day of June then next following, it being concluded that the late Duke of Monmouth, one of the Knights of the said Order, who then stood Attainted of High-Treason by Act of Parliament, for Invading this Realm in an Hostile manner, and raising a Rebellion against His Majesty, should be discarded of that Most Noble Order, and his Atchievements pulled down and kickt into the Castle Ditch, (which was accordingly performed by the Officers of Arms the day following) whereby another Stall became also vacant, the Companions assembled proceeded to the choice of a new Knight for filling up one of the two vacant Stalls, and the most Noble Lord Henry Earl of Peterborow, First Gentleman of His Majesties Bed-Chamber being Elected, was at the same time Invested by the Sovereign with the lesser George, and by Prince George of Denmark with the Garter; the fore-mentioned Significations or Admonitions being then likewise pronounced and read unto him by the Chancellor of the said Order.

And at another Chapter of the said Noble Order held at Whitehall the 29th day of the said Month of June, the most Noble Lord Laurence Earl of Rochester Lord High Treasurer of England was Elected into the other vacant Stall, being first Knighted by the Sovereign with the Sword of State, and afterwards Invested in like manner with the lesser George by His Majesty, and with the Garter by the Earl of Bedford, the usual Admonitions being read to him by the fore-said Chancellor.

CHAP. II.

Of the Installation of the said Three Knights at the Castle of Windsor. And first of their Proceeding to the Chapter-house.

THe three Knights Elect together with the Dukes of Ormond and Beaufort, who were the two Knights Companions of the said Order, Commissioned by His Majesty to perform the said Installation, being arrived at Windsor on Wednesday the 22. of July 1685. accompanied with the Duke of Somerset, another Knight Companion of the said most Noble Order; and being all Six Habited after the usual manner in their Doublets and Trunk-hose of Cloth of Silver, with white Gloves, Shoes and Stockings, Garters

Garters and Rofes, &c. and the two Commissioners, and Duke and Somerfet being in their full Habit, they met about Ten of the clock in the morning at the Lodgings of the Dean of Windsor, Register of the said most Noble Order, being a little to the Eastward of the Chappel of St. George: and the Poor Knights and Prebends belonging to the said Colledge of Windsor, being in their proper Habits, [viz. the Poor Knights in Gowns of Blew Cloth, with an Esccheon of the Arms of St. George, viz. a Red Crofs in a White Field on the Shoulder, and the Prebends in Mantles of Crimfon Silk with a little Crofs in a Circle] and having placed themselves in order in the Cloysters, between the said Deans Lodgings and the Chappel of St. George: And the Provincial Kings, Heralds, and Pursivants of Arms having Habited themselves in the Deans Hall with His Majesties Coats of Arms richly Imbroidered, according to their severall degrees, and placed themselves at the foot of the stairs leading to the Deans great Chamber; the proceeding to the said Chappel (in order to conduct the said Duke of Somerfet to his Stall, that he might be ready at the Offering, he not being otherwise concerned in the Ceremony) was as followeth.

First the Poor Knights Two and Two, the Junior first.

Next the Prebends Two and Two, the Junior first.

Then the Officers of Arms Two and Two, the Pursivants first.

Then the Duke of Somerfet in his full Habit, with his Cap and Feathers on his head.

Thus passing through the Cloysters, and down the North Isle of the said Chappel, they entred the Quire at the West-door; and the Poor Knights, Prebends and Officers of Arms, having made their double Reverences, first to the Altar, and then to the Sovereigns Stall, and passed up towards the steps of the Altar, the said Duke of Somerfet putting off his Cap, came also into the Quire, and having made the like double obeyfances, entred at the lower end of the Stalls on the Princes side, and so passed up to his own Stall, being the Eleventh on that side, and there seated himself.

Then the poor Knights, Prebends, and Officers of Arms having again made their due Reverences, returned towards the Deans Lodgings to Conduct the Knights Commissioners and Knights Elect to the Chapter-house, and placed themselves in order as before.

In the the mean while the Robes and other things to be used at the Installation of the said Three Knights, being laid in readines upon Cushions of Crimfon Velvet towards the lower end of the Table in the Chapter-house, by Sir William Dugdale Knight, *Gar*ter Principal King of Arms, viz. for each of them a Surcoat of Crimfon Velvet lined with white, with a Crimfon Velvet Hood thereto belonging; a Sword and Belt; a Mantle of Sky coloured Velvet lined with white; a great Coller and George consisting of Twenty six Garters of Gold, Enamelled, and Interlaced with as many Knots, with the figure of St. George appendant thereat, enricht with Diamonds; a Velvet Cap, the Band enriched with Diamonds, and adorned with a great Jewel before, and a large plume of White Feathers, with one black Tuft in the middle; and lastly a Book of the Statutes of the said most Noble Order richly bound. The Knights Elect having sent for their Caps and Feathers, and the Officers of the Order having Robed themselves, the Proceedings began as followeth.

First the poor Knights Two and Two, as before.

Next

Next the Prebends.

Then the Officers of Arms.

Then the Knights Elect Habited onely in their Doublets and Trunk-hose of Cloth of Silver, as before is said, single one after another, the Junior first, viz.

The Earl of Rochester ,	} With their Caps and Feathers in their hands.
The Earl of Peterborow ,
The Duke of Norfolk .

Then the Officers of the Order, habited in their Mantles of Crimfon Satin, Lined with White, viz. Dr. Haskard, Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order, wearing the Badge of his Office, viz. a Book embellisht, with a Garter, and two Pens acrofs.

Sir William Dugdale, Garter King of Arms, bearing the Commission for the Installation, and wearing the Badge of his Office, hanging in a Gold Chain.

Sir Thomas Duppa, Usher of the said Order, wearing the peculiar Badge of his Office, hanging likewise in a Gold Chain.

Then the Duke of Ormond, and the Duke of Beaufort, Commissioners for the said Installation, in their under Suits of Cloth of Silver, and Mantles of Blew Velvet, with their Caps and Feathers on their Heads.

Being entred the Chappel, the three Knights Elect, turning to the left Hand, reposed themselves on three Chairs, placed at the Back of the Quire, the Duke of Norfolk on the left Hand next to the Chapter-House-Door, the Earl of Peterborow in the middle, and the Earl of Rochester on the right Hand, while the two Knights Commissioners went into the Chapter-House, which is just at the entring the Chappel on the right Hand; the Officers of the Order going in before them.

CHAP. III.

The Ceremonies in the Chapter-House.

THE two Knights Commissioners, and the three Officers of the Order being thus entred into the Chapter-House, Garter, King of Arms, with three Reverences presented the Sovereign's Commission for the Installing of the said three Elect Knights, to the Senior Knight Commissioner, who delivering it to the Register, the Register forthwith read the same, and then returned it to the said Knight Commissioner, who thereupon delivered it again to the said Register, to be enter'd on Record in the Register-book of the said Order.

Then Garter, King of Arms, and the Usher of the Black Rod, being commanded by the Knights Commissioners, to bring in the Duke of Norfolk, came out of the Chapter-house, and having made their Obeyfances to the said Duke (who sate all this while at the Back of the Quire) conducted him into the said Chapter-house, where the said Duke having made his Reverence, the Senior Knight Commissioner declared the Sovereign's great Favour towards him, in a full Admittance into this Honourable Society; which the Duke humbly acknowledging, the said Commissioners, with Garter's Assistance, invested him with the Surcoat before-mentioned, and girt the Sword about

about him over his Surcoat, while the Register pronounced the Admonition following.

Take this Robe of Purple to the Encrease of your Honour, and in Token or Sign of the most Honourable Order you have received; wherewith you being defended, may be bold, not onely strongly to fight, but also to offer your self to shed your Blood for Christ's Faith, the Liberties of the Church, and the just and necessary Defence of them that be oppressed and needy.

The said Duke being thus Invested with the Surcoat, and girt with the Sword, remained in the Chapter-house with the Knights Commissioners, whilst Garter and the Usher having received the like Command to bring in the next Elect Knight, viz. the Earl of Peterborow, introduced him into the Chapter-house in like manner; where being invested, and all other Ceremonies performed, as they were to the Duke of Norfolk, they were sent out again for the youngest Knight Elect, scil. the Earl of Rochester; to whom all things were performed in like manner.

C H A P. IV.

The Proceeding into the Quire.

THE three Knights Elect being thus invested with part of the Habit of the said Noble Order, reposed themselves in the Chapter-house, whilst the Knights Commissioners, and Officers of the Order, &c. proceeded into the Choire from the said Chapter-house, through the North Isle, and in at the West door of the Choire (under the Organ) in this manner.

First the poor Knights two and two, the Junior first.

Next the Prebends, two and two, the Junior first.

Then the Officers of Arms, two and two, the Pursivants first.

Then the three Officers of the Order before-mentioned, the Register in the Middle.

Then the Knights Commissioners with their Caps and Feathers on their Heads until they came to the Quire.

Being entred the Choire, the Poor Knights (making their Obeysances in the middle of the Quire, first towards the Altar, and then to the Sovereign's Stall) ascended to the Steps before the Altar, and there divided themselves to the right and left.

Next the Prebends (having made the like Obeysances) took their Seats or Stalls, only two of them were conducted up by a Virger to the Altar, to receive the Atchievements, &c.

Then the Officers of Arms (having made the like Obeysances) ascended likewise to the Steps before the Altar, and dividing themselves to the right and left, stood before the poor Knights.

Then the three Officers of the Order, having made the like Obeysances, came and stood before their own Seat or Form, on the Right Hand the Quire, a little before the Sovereign's Stall.

Lastly, the two Knights Commissioners, (after the like Obeysances) came and stood in the Choire, under their respective Banners or Atchievements, which Atchievements, by the Sovereign's particular Warrant had been removed higher into their proper places the day before, to the end the At-chievements of the New Elect Knights might be set up over the three lowest Stalls.

CHAP. V.

The Offering of the Atchievements of the defunct Knights.

THE Atchievements of the late Sovereign and Prince Electeur Palatine being taken down and made clean, and placed in readines, directly under their respective Stalls, Garter came from his Seat, and (having made his usual Obeysances towards the Altar and Sovereign's Stall, and also to the Knights Commissioners) conducted them to the place where the Atchievements of the late Sovereign were laid.

Then the Provincial King of Arms, Clarenceux and Norroy, came down from the Steps of the Altar to the Body of the Chaire, and having made their usual Reverences towards the Altar, and Sovereign's Stall, and also to the Knights Commissioners, disposed themselves a little before the said Knights Commissioners on either side.

Which done, the two Knights Commissioners having received from Garter the Banner of the late Sovereign half rolled up, made their double Obeysances; and (being preceded by the said Kings of Arms who also made their due Reverences) passed up towards the Altar, bearing the lower end of the Staff foremost; and making another double Reverence at the first Haut pas, the two Kings of Arms, after an humble Obeysance divided themselves, to make way for the Knights Commissioners, who being come to the upper Haut pas, made a single Reverence to the Altar, and raising the point of the Banner upwards, presented it with a Bow to the two Canons or Prebends before-mentioned, who deposited it upon Cushions laid before the Altar.

Which done, the said Kings of Arms having conducted the aforesaid Knights Commissioners back into the Chaire, returned unto their places; whereupon the two Senior Heralds came down, and making their double Reverences, as also to the said Knights Commissioners, to whom Garter delivered the Sword of the late Sovereign, with the Pommel or Hilt upwards, conducted them up to the Altar, where, after the usual Reverences, it was offered as aforesaid. Then returning again, Garter delivered them the Helm and Crest, which they offered in like manner, the two next Heralds conducting them.

In like sort the Atchievements, viz. the Banner, Sword, and Helm and Crest of the late Prince Electeur Palatine were offered up by the said Knights Commissioners, conducted by two Officers of Arms.

Which being performed, the Knights Commissioners making their usual Obeysances, returned, and stood under their respective Banners, and the Officers of Arms return'd to their stations at the Steps before the Altar.

C H A P. VI.

The Installation of the Three Elect Knights; and first the introducing the Senior Knight Elect to his Stall.

THe Atchievements thus offered, the poor Knights came down from the Steps before the Altar (the Junior first) into the middle of the Chaire; where making their double Reverences, they proceeded out of the Chappel towards the Chapter-House; and next to them, the Officers of Arms in like Order, as also the three Officers of the Order, and the two Knights Commissioners.

Being come into the North Isle, the Poor Knights divided themselves to the Right and Left, and the Officers of Arms passing between them, nearer to the Chapter-House-Door, divided themselves in like manner, while the Officers of the Order and Knights Commissioners passing through them, entred the Chapter-House, where the three Knights Elect still remained.

Whence after a short stay, the Knights Commissioners bringing the Senior Knight Elect (scil. the Duke of Norfolk) they proceeded towards the Quire in form aforesaid, that is to say, first, the Poor Knights, next, the Officers of Arms; then the three Officers of the Order (*Gar*ter going in the middle, betwixt the Register and Usher of the Order) bearing on a Crimson Velvet Cushion, the Mantle, Hood, great Collar, and Book of Statutes before him. Then the said Duke, or Senior Knight Elect, in his Surcoat bare-headed, with his Cap and Feather in his Hand, betwixt the two Knights Commissioners, who wore their Caps and Feathers till the entrance into the Quire.

Thus entering the Quire, the Poor Knights and Officers of Arms, making their usual Obeysances, went up to their former Station at the Steps before the Altar; while the Officers of the Order making the like Reverences, came before the Stall design'd for the Senior Knight Elect, being the Twelfth Stall on the side called the Prince's Side. And *Gar*ter having orderly disposed the Mantle, Hood, Collar, &c. before the Stall design'd for the said Duke, came and stood in the Quire, with the other two Officers just before the said Stall.

Then the Knights Commissioners making the like Reverences, came into the lower or middle Row of Stalls, directly under the designed Stall of the said Senior Knight Elect, whom they introduced between them into the said lower Space or Row opposite to his Stall, where being placed, the Register of the said Order standing in the Quire before him, read his Oath to him, *Gar*ter holding the Book, whereon the said Knight Elect lay'd his hand; the Form of which Oath is as follows:

You being chosen to be one of the Honourable Company of this most Noble Order of the Garter, shall promise and swear by the Holy Evangelists, by you here touched, that wittingly or willingly you shall not break any Statute of the said Order, or any Articles in them contained; the same being agreeable and not repugnant to the Laws of Almighty God, and the Laws of this Realm, as far forth as to you belongeth and appertaineth; so God help you and his Holy Word.

The Oath being thus administred, and the said Elect Knight having kissed the Book, he was led by the Knights Commissioners up to the Stall appointed for him, through the middle Entrance, and by them placed before it.

C H A P.

CHAP. VII.

The Installation of the Duke of Norfolk, being the Senior Knight Elect.

THe Duke thus standing in his Stall (which, as is said before, was the Twelfth, of lowest but one on the Princes Side) Garter advanced into the lower Row or Stalls to the place where the Knight Elect took his Oath, and with an Obeysance to the Knights Commissioners, presented to them the Mantle wherewith they invested the said Duke, and put on the Hood upon his Right Shoulder over the Mantle, bringing the Tippet athwart his Breast, and tucking it under his Belt or Girdle, in the doing whereof, the Register read unto him the Admonition following.

Receive this Robe of Heavenly Colour, the Livery of this Most Excellent Order, in augmentation of thy Honour, Ennobled with the Shield and Red Cross of Our Lord; by whose Power thou mayst safely pierce Troops of thine Enemies, and be over them ever Victorious: And being in this Temporal Warfare Glorious, in Egregious and Heroick Actions, thou mayst obtain Eternal and Triumphant Joy.

Then the Knights Commissioners put on the great Collar of the Order about his Shoulders, tying it at each Shoulder over his Mantle and Hood, while the Register read to him the Admonition ensuing.

Wear this Collar about thy Neck, adorn'd with the Image of the Blessed Martyr and Souldier of Christ St. George; by whose imitation provoked, thou mayst so over-pass both prosperous and adverse Encounters, that having stoutly vanquished thy Enemies, both of Body and Soul, thou mayst not only receive the praise of this transient Combat, but be Crowned with the Palm of Eternal Victory.

After this the said Knights Commissioners presented the new Invested Knight with the Book of Statutes; and having put the black Velvet Cap, adorned with Plumes of white Feathers upon his Head, and placed him in his Stall, the Knight so Installed rose up, and putting off his Cap and Feathers, made his double Obeysances, first towards the Altar, and then towards the Sovereign's Stall, whereupon the Knights Commissioners embracing him as their Fellow and Companion, he fate down again uncovered in his assigned Stall.

Which done, the Knights Commissioners (making their Obeysances) came down into the Quire, and stood under their respective Banners.

CHAP. VIII.

The Installation of the Earls of Peterborow and Rochester.

THE Earl of Peterborow being next to be Installed, the poor Knights and Officers of Arms, came down from the Steps before the Altar, and making their usual Obeysances, proceeded out of the Quire, the Officers of the Order, and Knights Commissioners following them, and thence to the the Chapter-House again, as they did when they went to fetch in the Duke of Norfolk, Chap. 6. whence they conducted the next Elect Knight, scil. the Earl of Peterborow, in the same Order as before, into the lower Space before his design'd Stall, being the lowest Stall on the Sovereign's Side; where having taken the Oath before recited, the Knights Commissioners conducted him up to his proper Stall, and invested him with the Mantle, Hood, and Great Coller, the Register reading unto him the several Admonitions before recited; after which they presented him with the Book of Statutes; and having put on his Velvet Cap with Feathers, placed him in his Stall, all things being performed in the same manner, as before for the Duke of Norfolk.

Lastly, The Poor Knights, Officers of Arms, and Officers of the Order, conducted the Knights Commissioners out of the Quire again to the Chapter-House, in the same manner as before, whence they brought betwixt them the third, or youngest Knight Elect, scil. the Earl of Rocheſter, and Installed him in the lowest Stall on the Prince's Side; performing all things as before for the first and second Knights.

All the three Knights being thus Installed, the Officers of the Order conducted the Knights Commissioners to their respective Stalls, and (making their usual Obeysances) went to their own Seat.

Then the Officers of Arms came down from the Altar into the Choire, to hear divine Service; the Kings of Arms first, and after them the Poor Knights to their Seats, the Eldest first.

CHAP. IX.

The Offering of Gold and Silver.

Then Divine Service began, and the Communion, or Second Service being performed, and the Creed Sung, at the Words, Let your light so shine before men, &c. The Poor Knights making their Obeysances, ascended to their Station at the Steps before the Altar, the Junior first, and after them the Officers of Arms in like manner, flanking the said Poor Knights.

Then Garſter came from his Form to the middle of the Choire, where making his usual Obeysances, he summoned down from their Stalls the two Junior new Installed Knights, viz. the Earls of Rocheſter and Peterborow, who made their double Reverences in the Quire, and then placed themselves under their respective Banners.

Next he summoned down the Senior new Installed Knight, scil. the Duke of Norfolk, then the Duke of Somerſet, then the Junior Knight Commissioner, the Duke of Beaufort, and after him the Senior Knight Commissioner, the Duke of Ormond; who severally making their Obeysances, placed themselves in like manner, under their respective Banners.

The Six Knights standing thus under their several Banners, the two Kings of Arms, Clarenceux and Norroy came down into the Choire, and having made their double Reverences, as also their Obeysance to the Eldest Knight Commissioner, scil. the Duke of Ormond, they conducted him up towards the Altar, and he having made his usual Reverences, both at the Quire and at the first Step, or Haut-pas, kneel'd down on one Knee at the upper Step (a Velvet Cushion being laid for that purpose) and offer'd Gold and Silver, two of the Prebends holding a large gilt Basin, in which they received it, making their Reverence to the said Knight Companion.

D

Having

Having Offer'd, the said Kings of Arms, making their usual Obeysances, conducted him to the East end, or Passage into the Companions Stalls, of the Sovereign's side, where he made his Obeysances, and so passing through the Stalls, went up to his proper Seat or Stall, being the Fourth Stall on that side, where he repeated the usual Obeysances and rested himself.

Then the two Senior Heralds conducted up the Junior Knight Commissioner, the Duke of Beaufort, who Offer'd in like manner, and returned to his Stall, being the Sixth Stall on the Prince's side, by the lowest passage or entrance into the said Stalls.

Then the two next Heralds conducted up the Duke of Somerset, who Offer'd Gold and Silver in like manner, and returned to his Stall, being the Eleventh Stall on the Prince's side, by the East passage or entrance on that side, making the like Reverences. Then two other Heralds conducted up the Senior Installed Knight to the Altar, who Offer'd, and return'd to his Stall in like manner.

Lastly, Two other Officers of Arms making their accustomed Reverences, conducted up the two Junior Installed Knights together (being Pairs or Fellows to each other, which the other Knights were not) who making their usual Obeysances, Offer'd Gold and Silver in manner aforesaid, and return'd to their respective Stalls, the Earl of Peterborow to the Thirteenth, or lowest Stall on the Sovereign's side, and the Earl of Rocheſter to the Thirteenth, or lowest Stall on the Prince's side; each being conducted thither by one Officer of Arms.

CHAP. X.

The Recefs.

THe Offering thus performed, and the Knights remaining in their respective Stalls, the Officers of the Order at their peculiar Seat or Form, and the Officers of Arms and Poor Knights at the Steps before the Altar, flanking on each side: Divine Service proceeded, and ending with particular Prayers for the Sovereign and Knights Companions, the Benediction was pronounced.

Whereupon a Virger reverently conducted down the two Prebends from the Altar to their own Seats among their Fellows in the Quire. Which done, Garter coming from his Form, and making his Reverences in the Choire, ſummon'd down all the ſix Knights, viz. the two Junior firſt, and then the other four, one after another, who (after their accuſtomed Reverences) came and ſtood in the Quire under their reſpective Banners. Then the Officers of the Order made their due Reverences, and ſtood before their own Seat.

Then the Poor Knights deſcended from the Steps before the Altar, by two and two, the Junior firſt, and (making their joynt double Reverences in the middle of the Quire) proceeded out of the Chappel; then the Prebends deſcending from their Seats or Stalls into the middle of the Choire, made the like double Reverences joyntly, and going out two by two, the Junior firſt, followed the two Poor Knights; Next to them the Officers of Arms deſcended from the Steps before the Altar, and making the like double Reverences joyntly in the middle of the Quire, followed the Prebends by two and two, the Purſivants firſt, then the three Officers of the Order (making the like Reverences) followed the Officers of Arms; the Register in the middle, Garter on the right hand, and the Viſher on the left: Laſtly, the Six Knights Companions in order followed the ſaid Officers after having made their reſpective Obeysances beyfances, viz. the Earls of Rochester and Peterborow together, being Fellows; Next the Duke of Norfolk, then the Duke of Somerſet, then the Duke of Beaufort, and laſtly, the Duke of Ormond.

Thus paſſing out of the Quire at the Weſt-Door under the Organ, they went out of the Chappel at the South-Door, and ſo proceeded in Order to the Upper Ward of the Caſtle, the Souldiers of the Caſtle being drawn up in a Line as they paſſed along.

Being come to the great Iron-gate, at the entrance into the Royal Lodgings; the Poor Knights and Prebends open'd to the right and left, and the Officers of Arms and Officers of the Order conducted the Knights into the Queen's Preſence-Chamber, their Trains being held up all the way by the Quiriſters: Where the new Installed Knights returning their thanks to the Commiſſioners, they took leave of one another for the preſent, and retired to their ſeveral Apartments to diſrobe themſelves; and about an hour after met again in the Kings great Guard-Chamber, where a noble Feaſt of hot and cold Meats, with a Banquet by way of an Ambigue, being prepared at the joynt charges of the new Installed Knights, by Mr. Lamb His Majeſties Maſter Cook; they ſate down to Dinner, accompanied with divers Noblemen and Perſons of Quality; other Tables being alſo provided for the Noblewomen and their Attendants, and for the Officers at Arms and others.

CHAP. XI.

The Stiles of the Three new Installed Knights, as they are Engraven in French on their Plates, ſet up at the back of their reſpective Stalls.

D'U tres-haut, puissant, & tres-noble Prince HENRY Duc de Norſolc, & Conte Mareſcal d'Angleterre, Conte d'Arundel, Surrey, Norſolc & Norwich, Baron Mowbray, Howard, Segrave, Bruse (de Gower) Fitz-Alan, Warren, Clun, Oſwaldeſtre, Maltravers, Greystock, Furnival, Verdon, Lovetot, Strange (de Blackmere) & Howard (de Caſtle Ryſing): Premier Duc, Conte, & Baron d'Angleterre, Conſtable & Gouverneur du Chateau & Honeur, & Guardian de la Foreſt de Windſor; Lieutenant des Provinces de Norſolc, Surrey & Berkſhire, Citté de Norwich & Province de la ditté Citté, & Chevalier du tres-noble Ordre de la Jartiere: Enſtallé au Chateau de Windſor le XXII jour de Juliet l'an M. D. C. LXXX. V.

In the Banner are eight Quarterings, ſcil. Howard, Brotherton, Warren, Moubray, Fitz-Alan, Clun, Maltravers, Talbot; but the Plate has onely the firſt four.

2. Du Tres-Noble & Puiffant Seigneur Henry Comte de Peterborow, Peir d'Angleterre, Seigneur Mordaunt, Seigneur Baron de Turvey, Premier Gentilhomme de la Chambre du Roy, Seigneur Lieutenant de la Comté de Northampton, un des Seigneurs du Conſeil d'Eſtat & Privé du Roy, & Chevalier du Tres-Noble Ordre de la Jartiere Enſtallé au Chateau de Windſor, le 22 jour de Juillet, 1685.

The Banner and Plate conſiſt of Twelve Coats, Firſt two ſingle Coats, viz. 1. Mordaunt, 2. Alnetto, Then 4 Coats Quarterly, viz. 3. Vere de Adington, 4. Vere. 5. Manduit. 6. Drayton. Then Four other Coats Quarterly, viz. 7 Howard with a * 8 Brotherton, 9 Warren, 10 Moubray, then Two ſingle Coats again, viz. 11. Latimer, & 12. Fitz-Lewis.

3. Du Tres-Noble & Puissant Seigneur Laurens, Comte de Rochester, Viscomte Hyde, de Kenelworth, & Baron de Wotton Bassett; Grand Tresorier d'Angleterre; Conseiller d'Estat & Privé, & Chevalier du Tres-Noble Ordre de la Jarriere. Installé, au Chasteau de Windsor, le 22 jour de Juillet, l'an M. DC. LXXX. V.

The Banner and Plate consist of Six Quarterings, viz. 1. Hyde, with a 2 Langford, 3 Ailesbury, 4 Brandeston, 5 Beaufitz, & 6 Denman.

A Scheme of the Stalls at Windsor as they stood before the present Installation.

2.	1.	1.	2.
The King of Denmark.	The Sovereign.	The King of Sweden.	The D. of York.
3. The Prince of Orange.		The Prince Elect. of Brandenburg.	3.
4. The Prince Elector Palatine.		Prince George of Denmark.	4.
5. The Duke of Ormond.		The Duke of Buckingham.	5.
6. The Earl of Oxford.		The Earl of Strafford.	6.
7. The Duke of Monmouth.		The Duke of Albemarle.	7.
8. The Duke of Beaufort.		The Earl of Bedford.	8.
9. The Earl of Arlington.		The Duke of Southampton.	9.
10. The Earl of Mulgrave.		The Duke of Newcastle.	10.
11. The Earl of Danby.		The Duke of Grafton.	11.
12. The Duke of Richmond.		The Duke of Hamilton.	12.
13. The Duke of Somerset.		The Duke of Northumberland.	13.

*A Scheme of the Stalls at Windsor as they now stand filled up
 22 July, 1685.*

2.	1.	1.	2.
The King of Denmark.	The Sovereign.	The K. of Sweden.	The P. of Orange.
3. The Prince Elect. of Brandenburg.		Prince George of Denmark.	3.
4. The Duke of Ormond.		The Duke of Buckingham.	4.
5. The Earl of Oxford.		The Earl of Strafford.	5.
6. The Duke of Albemarle.		The Duke of Beaufort.	6.
7. The Earl of Bedford.		The Earl of Arlington.	7.
8. The Duke of Southampton.		The Earl of Mulgrave.	8.
9. The Duke of Newcastle.		The Earl of Danby.	9.
10. The Duke of Grafton.		The Duke of Richmond.	10.
11. The Duke of Hamilton.		The Duke of Somerset.	11.
12. The Duke of Northumberland.		The Duke of Norfolk.	12.
13. The Earl of Peterborow.		The Earl of Rochester.	13.

F I N I S.